Chicopee Comprehensive
High School
Chicopee, Mass.

Editor-in-Chief
William Pudlo

Assistant Editor
Lucia Whitaker

To the Class of 1964:

You have the distinction of being the first class to graduate from the Chicopee Comprehensive High School.

With this distinction, you have a challenge and a responsibility: A challenge to practice in all of your future activities the sound work habits, logical thinking, craftsmanship, and the spiritual, moral sense you have developed; a responsibility to set a pattern of behavior as an example for future graduates to insure that they, too, will become sincere, worthy, and loyal citizens in this great country.

Traditions are those elements of the past which society has seen fit to maintain and to carry forward. You, the graduates of the Class of 1964, have participated in establishing some of the traditions which will grow with Chicopee Comprehensive High School.

We are certain that you can take pride in the customs and practices which you as individuals had a part in establishing.

We hope that those who come after you will maintain and improve upon them.

Our prayers go with you for happy and useful years to come.

Stanley J. Ziemba

To the Class of 1964:

It is with great pleasure and pride that I offer to each and every member of this, the first class to graduate from Comprehensive High School, my sincere congratulations on a job well done. Being the first class to graduate from this school, you have set many traditions that will be with us for a long time. I am certain that you will follow through in the same manner in all that you do in the future.

I wish each and every one of you the best of health and happiness and an abundance of success in everything you do.

Stanley J. Ziemba

William Coscore

As the first class to graduate from Chicopee Comprehensive High School, you are and always will be different from any other class. My message to you, as you leave us, is to "dare to be different" for the remainder of your lives.

The illnesses, problems and frustrations of any society can usually be attributed to a group of people who had completely conformed to all pressures. All sorts of pressures will be brought to bear upon you: social, economic and political. Rewards will be dangled before you, usually of a material nature. Appeals will be made to your pride and vanity. Various formulae for happiness will be thrust upon you.

True happiness has many pre-requisites: a willingness to work hard: to speak and live the truth; to respect the rights of others and the courage to "stand up and be counted" on any issue.

As you go through life constructing a philosophy by which you will live, dare be different.

William Coscore

DEDICATION

Becouse of his brood conception of educotion ond its importonce in the development of every individuol, his procticol opprooch to the problems which confront our newly estoblished high school, his oppreciotion of the volues which come to our notion through the development of sound quolities of leodership in its young monhood ond womonhood, ond becouse of his untiring generosity in giving oid to ony student who desires to moke his contribution to succeeding generotions, The Memini of 1964 is officiolly ond offectionotely dedicoted to our principol, Mr. Stonley J. Ziembo.

IN MEMORIAM

In Arlington a songbird trills,
Its small voice pure and crystal clear,
It sings his hymn of love and faith,
Of bright tomorrows, free from fear;
It sings of his love for God and man,
And falters, as with trembled grief,
Its crescendo sings the dirge

For you, the members of the first class to graduate from Comprehensive High School, I wish many things. May the two years that you have spent here together give you many pleasant memories. May you always be aware that education is a continuous process whether you go on to college or not. May your personal goals be high, and may you attain them.

Rachel G. Shumway

W. Ryan

It has been extremely gratifying and a source of personal pride to have played a part in the activities of the class of 1964. As assistant advisor to Mrs. Shumway, I have gained a great deal more than I have given in being able to observe at close hand the optimism and industrialism which so clearly marks this class. I believe this class is worthy to be the first to graduate from a school which in the years to come will be responsible for not only educating our youth, but instilling a love of freedom and industrial integrity to all.

"We, the Class of '64, in order ta farm a more perfect reunion, hereby gather in front of the Schine Inn ta celebrate this gala accasion." Before aur guests arrive, we would like to thank personally, Mr. Leon Simard, praprietor of the Schine Inn, who has taken over his father's farmer business, the Bongo Lounge. The Chairman of this affair, Bill Pudlo, has set up the fallowing cammittees who have worked so hard ta bring about this reunion.

Invitations were rocketed ta Mars, the Moon and ather neighbaring planets by aur space mailman, Sherman Jones. The invitations were written by local alumni, Dorothy Laplante, Sally Bock, Marie Fortier, Joyce Garman, Cynthia Shaffer, and Rosaline Stafford.

As you enter the Inn, natice the blue and gold decorations representing our high school days. They were arranged by our Decoration Committee, Jaan Cronin, Jahn Hewes, David Gill, Betsy Hubbard, Valerie Garthwaite, and Donna Baissonneault.

Gaylon Ramsey, naw commander of the Aero Space Station, is awaiting the arrival of his old high schaal flame, Lucia Whitaker. While waiting, he meets some of his former classmates. Judy O'Cannor, who is taking time aut from her role as Cleopatra, came to be with us. Also from Hollywood came John Cleary, Gregory Campbell, Richard Fortin, and Ronald Brault, who have taken aver the Warner Brothers Studio.

Oh! What is it? A bird? A plane? Na, it's Comp alumni from Mars. Descending from the space ship we see the pilot, Linda Jordon; the co-pilot, Linda Newcomb; and the navigator, Armand Dederjean, who went off caurse and landed on Jupiter. There he picked up a few martians: Francis Marcotte, Barbara Martin, Charles Wall, Mary Van Der Heyden and Jeanne Salan . . . Also departing from the space ship are the two stewardesses, Lise and Monique Champoux, and the passengers, Peter Czupryna, Judy Minor, Michael Wooddell, Catherine Webb, John Duncan, Roger Desmarais, and Eileen Guillemette.

Overhead we see Richard Hanson, Michaelene Padykula, Rocky Swearingen, and Ann Urabazo approaching on the monorail, driven by Carolyn Wierciszewski.

Peddling down the turn pike at 40 miles per hour, a bicycle built for 10 stops to pay the toll to David McDanald. On the bike are Joseph Varga, Viola Willett, Pamela Picard, Beverly Rollins, David Wischof, John Moynihan, Marie Martel, William Crandall, John Becker, and Janice Fleming.

Inside the Schine Inn, serving pickled bees' knees, frog salad, and turtle egg soup, are Carol Bardon, Rose Marie Blain, Judy Gradeck, and Sandy Jones. The main course, which consisted of hippo-steak, martian potatoes, and goose-berry sauce, is served by head waiter, Ben Endicott, and waitresses Patricia Gregory, Joan Lee, Constance Menard, and Kathy Niemiec.

Dinner is being served all through the evening to accommodate the late arrivals. Richard Hall, now Prime Minister of England, enters with his body guards, Gerald Carney, Mark

A telegram has just arrived from Irene Prince, telling of her regret at not being able to attend because she has locked her keys in her private airplane. Other messages were received from Suzanne Niemiec, who lost her way on her route through Africa; Carolyn LaBonte, unable to attend because her daughter broke her leg during cheerleading practice, and Kathy Booth and Mary Lou Griffin, who have an engagement with Capitol Records and cannot be with us tonight.

Dr. Laurel Demers has just finished her experiment with atoms. Her assistant, Cheryl Buchanan, and she have just arrived. Following them are George Tyler, Michael Walters, Donna Topping, Linda Friend and Lance Walsh, who are all active members of the local P.T.A.

James Lee, Paul Tatro, Thomas Beaudoin, Richard Robitille, David Zajchowski, Harold Browning, and Edward Rozewski have just returned from an African safari and are showing slides of their adventures. And whom do we see riding an elephant through the jungle? None other than Cindy Polverini! Flying on a vine, Lenny St. George, passes the screen and gives us a big hearty wave. After the slides were shown, we were entertained by Julie Ceria, Diane Sagan, Candy Champagne, Michele Mercier, and Pat Bennett, who put on a girl scout skit.

A portable tank is being brought in by two husky men, John Bartoszek and Larry Dandurand. A few of the ex-Dolphinetts — Heather Stewart, Mary Maj, and Betsy Thomas — will swim to Blue Velvet. The Blast-Off, a new dance sensation, is demonstrated by Carol Barthelette and Peggy Grabon. Other dances were performed by Annette Belanger, Richard Papuga, Joan Pluta, and Ronald Brunelle.

While the entertainment is going on, a few more distinguished guests arrive. Among them are Dennis Bak, Sherry Nibblett, Monica Lucasik, and Mary Guzik.

The final act of the evening will be a hula dance presented by Dorothy Bousquet, Jeanne Roy, Mary Ann Jones, Gloria Bozek, Karen McKissick, and Rhodella Scoles.

Janet Spring and Steve Tillman, Eleanor Wilk and John Delap, Kathy Lemanski and Paul Posesek, Roberta Teehan, and David Bissaillon are dancing to the music of Chet's Orchestra, which consisted of a few Comp alumni; Chet Trybus, Wayne Erickson, Robert Johnson, Gerald Steiger, Tom LaRochelle, and Earl Upchurch.

As we walk by Christina Drabinski, Diane Simard, and Joyce Moreau, we overhear the latest gossip. From listening we find out that Peggy Rattigan now lives in New Mexico and is doing quite well as a teacher of English. We also are told of Robert Drake, who is a dentist in New York, and Carol Cruz, who is his secretary. Playing in the Rose Bowl this year are David Lariviere, Lance Stabler, Brian Gordon, George Tillett, Frank Adams, and Daniel Murphy. On the opposing team are Richard Wisniewski, John Blake, Ben Podolak, Jack Pruitte, Dennis Hossfeld, and Fred Martin. An oldy but goody, Lenette Cariani, is a Wap-Burger maker in Italy. We also hear that Jacqueline Fortin runs her own beauty salon and Jean Benander is her most frequent customer.

Pat Bobek is now head nurse at the Providence Hospital, and some of the nurses under her are Pat Childs, Sandra Motley, Penny Ohm, Nancy Scanlon, and Caroline Savey. Modeling at Forbes and Wallace are Carol Kowalik, Barbara Ambrose, Diane King and Carol Ames.

William Buckley now interviews a few members of the class. First, he stops by Tom Bellerose, who tells about his trip to Russia. Susan Beeler tells us she is a professor of psychology in West Virginia. James Dupont and Walter Fijal are partners in a big industrial firm in India. Chris Deady started the second gold rush, only this time it is in Alaska. Some of his rich employees are John Evans, Ted Ganczak, Kenneth Doody, and Richard Fontaine. We are fortunate enough to have our reunion at the same time that the new Ice Capet group are performing at the Coleseum. In the group are Judy Backstrom, Theresa Cardinal, Colleen Cooney, Pat Eisenman, Judy Chaisson, Kathy Crandall, Sue Halpin, Nancy Fauss, Alison Izatt, Sharon Fields, Nancy Henderson, and Sharon Gordon. In the Ice Cadets are James Baker, Paul Chartier, Philip Desmarais, Robert Dziadzio, Ronald Huff, Stanley Farr, Richard Bergeron, Richard Christopher, Charles Hornbuckle, Teddy Jarzabek, Robert Greenwood, and Richard Blanchard.

Interviewing Louella Gonzales, we find out she is an opera singer in Spain. From talking to Pamela Blackburn, we learn that she still plays the French horn and is appearing in a concert next week.

Aboard the U.S.S. Saratoga are some of of our former classmates who are not able to attend because they are serving Uncle Sam. These sailors are Paul Fields, Michael Gonet, Rodney Glover, Tony Gawron, Stephen Garthwait, Bruce Erickson, Tony Essman, and John Fitzgerald. Stationed near home at Westover are Base Commander Ralph Embrey, Major John Connor, Captains Peter Dikan and Brian Donnelly, and First Lt. Frank Bauer.

Also abroad in their sharp uniforms are Richard D'Andrea, Air Force; Lawrence Bergeron, Coast Guard; Charles Miesch and Melvin McCoy, Marines; and last but not least are John Jula, Richard Moore, Eugene Lussier, Charles Phaneuf, and Dennis Murray, who are scattered over the continent as members of the U.S. Army.

The lucky girls accompanying these men are Waves Christine Barabani, Patricia Bowen, Martha Brackett, and Mary Hannigan. And the girls who keep the Air Force rolling are Shirley Borowski, Nancy Hudson, Gioia Algee, Joanne Grzelak, and June Baldassare.

We also heard that the stork has made several visits to Mr. and Mrs. James Lawson, who are the proud parents of the second set of quintuplets in the United States. A set of twins were delivered by Dr. Bill Rand to Mr. and Mrs. Donald Schimke, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Moore.

Getting back to the program at the Schine Inn, our guest speaker, Mr. John Smith, talks about the progress of Chicopee since 1964. In his presentation he congratulates Mayor

Joseph Piela and his department heads: Kathy Dziok, Walter Tolpa, June Wendry, Donald Loiselle, and Bernard Couillard. He tells us that Sickles, run by Paul Teehan, has produced the greatest amount of radio equipment in the United States. Some of Mr. Teehan's employees are Sue Rauscher, Sharon Kirby, Christine Wyszynski, Nancy Tuck, Joanne Mohan, Jeanne Pitcher, and Diane Stebbins. Mr. Smith also describes a new launching station in Chicopee constructed in 1975 by the Thomas Simpson Construction Company. The first astronauts launched from our home station in 1980 were Nancy Tugie, Ann Sampson, June Perron, Claudelle Leclair, and Sandy Paquette. This great advancement in Chicopee has brought many big businesses, such as the Mabel Perdue Seamstress Co., which provides the astronaut uniforms; the Frederick Martin Fuel Co., the Patrick Murphy Steel Corp.; and the Elaine Nurak Tube Food Co. Our speaker confirmed that the completion of the great Wenzel Land, created by Kathy Wenzel has brought important diplomatic leaders here. Among them are some of our old friends: Mayor of New York, Stanley Truce; Duke of Windsor, Fredrick Smith, Superintendent of Schools in Alabama, Leonard Shewchuk; Queen of England, Judy Metz; President of the American Tel. & Tel., Dennis Monson; Secretary to the President of the United States, Marcia Michalik, and famous movie stars Nadine Monaco, Sharon Wells, Mary Ann Mszanski, Joseph Lukiwsky, Paul Kenison, Gerald Kawalec, and Martin Kane.

During the years after our graduation, a world wide newspaper agency sprang up with its main office in Chicopee. The editor of the Star Chronicle is Donald Lacharite. His by-line reporters are Pat Johnson, John Gula, Marie Guyott, Linda Surgur, Barry Roberts, Allan Lashway, June Major, Richard Dansereau, Robert Granger, and Pauline Rua.

Radio station C.C.L.P.J. has sky-rocketed to Mars, where we have some of our great news commentators from our home town. Among them are Sandra Topulas, William Lees, Gilbert Robitaille, Howard Nelson, Richard Blanchard, and Richard Litwin.

After concluding his speech Mr. Smith stumbled off the stage and broke his baby finger nail. Sally McGorry and Harolyn Richter rushed in with a stretcher. They were followed by the doctor, Michael Pandolfo. The victim was rushed to the Margaret Maloney Hospital by Keith Morris and Gordon Kroenke, driving the ambulance.

While this terrible tragedy was taking place, our former principal, Mr. Ziemba, stepped up to the microphone to give recognition to the people who worked so hard to bring about the first reunion of Chicopee Comp. He expressed his warm gratitude to Sue Kuopinski, Vicki McFeeley, Floried Trout, Pat Wysk, Elizabeth Rothey, and Carol Stokowski for being prominent citizens in the community.

We see Jean Theroux, Janet Wacelitz, Sandra Weinberger, and Carolyn Watson, looking at their former classmates as they file out of the Schine Inn. The expression on their faces show in a few words that they will never forget this gala occasion.

CLASS WILL

We, the Class of 1964, the first graduating class of Chicopee Comprehensive High School, being of sound mind and memory, do hereby declare this our last will and testament.

To Mr. Ziemba and Mr. Coscore, we leave the memory of the first and best class to graduate from Comp — the Class of 1964.

To Mrs. Shumway and Mr. Ryan, our class advisors, we will our sincere appreciation for suffering along with us the pains and joys of building a reputation and a tradition for our new school.

To the Class of 1965, we will the privilege of being looked up to as seniors in setting an example for the underclassmen.

To the Class of 1966, we will the heartaches and joys of class dues, the magazine drive, the Junior Prom, and everything else that goes along with your first year as an organized, united class.

To the Class of 1967, we will our congratulations to them for surviving through their freshman year.

I, Carol Ames, being of sound mind and strong body, will to Chicopee Comprehensive High School the best graduating class there ever will be. We are great, not less, but more — we're the Class of '64.

A very generous Walter Tolpa bequeaths his five long, but wonderful years in high school to anyone who is stupid enough to take them. The best of luck is wished to the person who receives them.

Kurt Embrey — I will if you will.

I, Ron Huff, being of relatively sound mind and body, will my left-over lunches from first lunch to Bill Burns, and my old, broken guitar picks to Brian Nichols, so he can learn to play the guitar.

I, Jack Pruitte, hereby leave the entire collection of cobwebs accumulated in my Trade School locker to Charlie "Turtle" Tetrealt.

The lucky recipient of Mary Hannigan's problems is Mr. Ahern.

Being of sound mind and body, I, Jeff Fitzgerald, leave.

To her sister Fran, Judy O'Connor leaves all her torn book covers, unfinished homework assignments, and her locker in the Trade section. To Bonnie Burns go all the heartaches and joys of high school football and basketball games. Her white cheering skirt is also left to Bonnie.

Won't Mr. Ahern appreciate the box of chalk to save the wear and tear on his fingers willed to him by Jan Fleming!

David McDonald wills the next homeroom in the library the right to be awakened by Miss MacDonald's term, "People, be quiet."

Mr. White is the lucky recipient of John Becker's tennis experience.

I, June Baldassaro, will my gym locker to Judy Brown, in hopes that next year nobody will have to put up with a wet, smelly bathing suit, as I did.

To her brother and sister Steve and Carolyn, Mabel Perdue wills all of the lockers in the Trade section.

I, Thomas Beaudoin, will my half-lens glasses to Mr. Welker. May he always see straight.

Marie Rondeau's locker in the Trade School is willed to Dorothy's sister who visits it each day. Wonder why?

To Cheryl Conte, I, Joan Pluta, will my brownie points, admission slips, excuses, and my permanent library pass.

The incoming freshmen will be shocked with the ropes in the gym donated to them by Carol Barthelette.

I, Kip Crandall, will to Johnny Kitchen and all future Comp basketball players my unequaled ability to get along with Mr. Dulchinos, our benevolent coach.

To my sister Lorraine, I, Jeanne Roy, leave my graduation day and all the wonderful memories of my high school years.

The next paper drive will appreciate Janet Fontaine's donation of the chewing gum wrappers that lie in the bottom of her locker.

To Dick Sitcer, Kathy Wenzel leaves one pink thong which has been in his car since last summer.

I, Mary L. Van Der Heyden, supposedly being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath to any member of the Junior Class taking Modern History from Mr. Czechowicz all my moans and groans emitted upon being handed back his papers so that these students can truly enjoy the mirth and affability of "Friendly Freddie."

Thanks to Tom LaRochelle, Mr. Dulchinos won't have any problem with his hair, because he is now the owner of Tom's cheering wig.

I, Mary Lou Griffin, leave to my sister, Evelyn, the honor of using her own locker in future years, to brother, Larry, the ability to get away with doing nothing, and to all up-coming seniors in the P.Y.C. the happiness I've shared with others.

Stanley J. Truce surrenders his third period paper route to any senior who sits near the door in Mr. Moran's Problems of Democracy class.

I, Ken Fagnant, bequeath to Bill Lapointe all the gum stuck under the tables in Cafeteria B. Ken also leaves to Ronnie Horton his broken chemistry equipment and his squeaky stool.

I, Gordon Kroenke, will Ron Cipolla, Esq., all my skill in bowling; he needs it.

Linda Brockman receives Beverly Rollins' teasing comb.

To anyone who is foolish enough to think he has any, Dennis Bak bequeaths his good study habits.

Tommy Wells will have to find some use for the blue tank suit given to him by Kathy Booth.

I, Dan Buck, shall will my will to Richard Papuga if he will accept it.

To her sister Annelle, and to Ralph Webster, Pamela Blackburn wills all the joys and heartaches of high school, and to Mr. Ahern, she wills the hope for a decent speech book, no freshmen, and an early retirement.

I, Susan Kulpinski, will to Mr. Moran all of my unfinished homework assignments for Problems of Democracy.

I, Diane King, leave to my sister Donna King, and to Jackie Kamenidias, for their one remaining year, the crowded buses and corridors and our social hour after school every day. Also, I promise my sister all my old school clothes with no feeling of loss or regret.

Mary Ann Bozek will receive all of Patricia Bobek's apple cores.

Bruce Erickson leaves his old rubber car tires to Mr. Ladeau, who needs them badly.

Pat Johnson wants Mr. Moran to have a detailed map of Magnolia, Arkansas, to prove to him that it is a place!

An unselfish Sandy Weinberger leaves all the clogging of the halls while passing from one class to another, especially on the second floor, to Carol McGee, Diane Picard, Irene Dalbec, and Pat Dupont.

Mr. Moran will surely be surprised to receive from Pat Bennett all the New York Times' funnies that he hid from her all year.

The privilege of having his locker in the Trade section and his homeroom on the third floor is beqeathed to any up-coming junior by Bill Rand.

I, Cindy Polverini, will my gym socks to Junior Linda Tshonis so she won't have to barrow them any more. And I'm going to wash them.

I, Pat Gregory, will the food in the cafeteria to my sister Nancy.

I, Dorothy LaPlante, will to my sister Mary, my seat in Mr. Ahern's seventh period Problems of Democracy class.

James Lawson leaves his old gym sneakers to Mr. Ahern to bring him good luck in basketball.

I, Patricia Childs, being of sound mind, do will all my problems to Mr. Dulchinos, and to Lyn Brockman, I will my stuffed bunny.

Freshman Frank Topor is the lucky person to receive all of Chicopee Comprehensive High School from Dorothy Bousquet.

A year in English IV with Miss Sokolowski is willed to Julie Newcomb by Carolyn Watson. Good luck! Carolyn's "Poems for John" are also left to Julie.

I, Jean Benander, do hereby will my job at Friendly's to anyone who can resist the temptation to eat all our profit.

I, Harolyn Richter, leave all my American Observers to Doris Bonneau for her Problems of Democracy classes.

Mr. Moran will be the envy of all with Karen Miller's hair willed to him to wear in any style and color he so chooses.

Jeanne Salon's fourth period studies and fifth period English class are turned over to Carol McGee. Jeanne hopes Carol will use them as she did — studies for fun and English to learn.

Betsey Hubbard happily wills the overly-congested halls of Chicopee Comp to Donna King, who has the peculiar knack for getting caught behind one of the few unhurried students, especially after seventh period.

To her brothers Jim and Bill, Linda Siclari, bequeaths her Trade locker, her uncomfortable seat in the music room, and the many miles she walked to classes. She also wishes well to all underclassmen, hoping they won't lose as many articles as she did.

I, Charles V. Wall, will hugs and kisses to any beautiful girl who feels that life isn't worth living without me.

I, Sharon Wells, will to Linda Swensen all the fun, teachers, and class dues that I had in my senior year. To Vikki Willmar, I leave anything she wants.

To all future cheerleaders, I, Carol LeBonte, will all my aches and pains that go along with practice. Also, beware of Mr. White; he's a big joker!

Won't Mr. Moran be surprised when he finds out that his second period Problems of Democracy class has willed him to the New York Times!

I, Lucia Whitaker, will Miss O'Brien to any forthcoming senior who might need unselfish guidance. Also, to Pat Reed, I will all of my empty hair spray cans.

Nadine "Dino" Monaco happily wills her brother Gerry, to Marglyn Harris. Good luck Margo! Nadine would also like to leave her AA card with John Kitchen's autograph on it to anyone who is a John Kitchen fan.

An anonymous donor leaves Stephen Tillman a yo-yo without the string; to John Connors, a deck of stacked cards; and to Vicki MacFeely, a pipe with "packed" tobacco.

I, William Pudlo, leave all my corridor passes, written, verbal or otherwise to any Junior or underclassman with an iron will and few smarts.

CLASS HISTORY

There we were at last! In the midst of all the confusion and excitement, our curiosity os to what high school was really like now was being fulfilled.

The clomor of o presidentiol election year added to our apprehension of entering high school. The poromount result of this hectic campaign was the inspiring Inaugural Address of the newly elected President, John F. Kennedy.

One of the mony problems which confronted us as Freshmen was the overcrowdedness of Chicopee High School. It was learned that a new high school would soon be built, but until then we must cope with triple sessions ond shared lockers.

We were soon introduced to Mr. Henry Fay, Principol of C.H.S., and Mr. Stanley Ziembo, Vice-Principol, ond mony of us began to know too well exactly where their offices were located!

As time possed on, we began to familiorize ourselves with mony things. Such ploces as "Baby Heaven" and "Cat's Alley" will never be forgotten by most of us. And of course we will never forget Chicopee's own "Maroon and Gold Spider."

As proud members of the student body, we watched our school experience a wonderful year in sports. Our football team won the AA Conference Championship for the second time, being the only team to hove ever occomplished this.

As the long owoited month of June arrived, we looked forward with eager onticipotion to our first challenge at upperclassmen's feelings of superiority at the annuol Field Day held ot Szot Pork.

June came only too quickly; ond os Step-up Day orrived, it was a pleosure to wotch the younger children come in to take over our places os Freshmen.

We returned this fall feeling o little bit more sure of ourselves. No longer would we be holding our progrom cards in front of our noses looking for the class we were supposed to be in five minutes ogo or looking for the classroom that wos there yesterdoy but todoy just wosn't onywhere in sight.

This year braught the World's Fair to Seattle, Woshingtan, and the building af the extravagant restauront "Space needle" which towered high obave the Fair giving thase at the top a magnificent view of the hoppenings below. Two new T.V. personalities, Dr. Ben Casey and R. Kildare, made a big hit with us oll, and soan many articles such os doctors' blouses and jewelry came inta prominence.

We still remoined an the "triple session" schedule, and we knew at this time that next year we wauld be attending the new high school, which meont the Closs af '64 would be the first graduoting closs.

A mast interesting event took place this year. In fact, when yau entered the cafeteria, you didn't know exactly where you were. Ya-yas were everywhere in sight! Yau didn't have ta look ta see what it was if something landed in your saup or dessert, but this saan last its papularity ond in time yo-ya playing ceosed to exist.

In the spring, the annual Science Foir braught natable recognition ta two members of our closs. Bill Rand wos presented the Mossachusetts Heort Assaciation Award and John Julo took first place in bialagy.

We ogoin experienced o successful yeor in sports. The basketboll teom won the Valley League Championship for their second cansecutive yeor, ond the baseboll teom won the State Championship. Our hockey team enjayed a fine season os they went into the new Berry Division.

Four intelligent students from C.H.S. oppeored on the television quiz progrom, "As Schools Match Wits," ond brought great honor ta the school when they become undefeated chompians.

This ended our Saphamare yeor ot Chicapee High School ond alsa our finol yeor in thot building. When we returned to schoal next year, we wauld be attending the Chicapee Camprehensive High Schoal as the Junior Closs.

The moment we entered the building, we realized how lucky we were ta be attending such a beautiful school!

As the tap class at Chicopee Camprehensive we knew that it was aur duty ta set a gaod example to be follawed not anly this yeor but in the many yeors to came.

Tagether with aur principal, Mr. Stanley J. Ziemba, ond aur Vice-Principol, Mr. Williom Coscare, the faculty and the student body worked tagether ta moke aur first year at Camp a successful one.

The first thing ta be dane was ta elect class afficers. We knew that this wauld have ta be done with careful considerotian because of the impartance af the job that would have to be carried aut by them. The officers elected were Rabert Droke, President; Borbaro Ambrose, Vice-President; Heother Stewart, Secretary; ond Joon Pluto, Treosurer.

The laying of the cornerstone took place on November 20, 1962. Mayor Edward Lysek and Superintendent of Schools John L. Fitzpatrick were among many of the distinguished guests present.

Our first Student Council was set up with Mr. Marrisette and Mr. Crane as their advisors. Elected officers were: Ray Everett, President; Secretary, Linda Lebrecque; Treasurer, Cannie Henderson; and Vice-President, Pat Bennett.

To raise the necessary money we needed for our Senior year, a sucessful magazine drive was held and dances were sponsored by the Student Council and by us, the Junior Class.

Many outstanding events held at our school praved our ability to work together as a graup althaugh we were a new school. These events included the Variety Show, the Western Massachusetts Student Council Conference, and the Water Ballet Show.

The most important of these was the Education Exhibit held in May with Mr. Moran serving as chairman. Displays from each department were set up and the public was invited to attend our school to see these exhibits.

Sports of many kinds were affered also. To assist and support our interscholastic teams, the following were selected as Comp's first Varsity Cheerleading Squad: Judy O'Connor, Jaan Pluta, Janet Spring, Barbara Nelson, Heather Stewart, Caralyn Labante, Diane Sagan, and Linda Tshonis.

The varsity basketball and baseball teams were coached by Mr. Dulchinos; track, Mr. Ouimette; swimming team, Mr. Budynkiewicz; soccer, Mr. Welker; galf, Mr. Orlowski; and tennis, Mr. White.

The Junior Varsity football team was also coached by Mr. White and the J.V. basketball and baseball teams were under the direction of Mr. Hurst.

Never were we sa proud as when spring came and we received our class rings!

The last thing ta be enjayed by us this year was our Junior Pram, "Night in the Oriental Garden." We cauld not have had a more beautiful pram if we had been a lang established schaal. Gary Packingham, who has now left our schaol, served as general chairman for this prom.

We said gaad-bye ta Comp as we finished this long and busy year and waited anxiously to start our Senior year in the fall.

SENIOR YEAR

We returned this September enthusiastic for the new school year. As Seniors, we still remained the top class full of plans we hoped would work out.

November 22, 1963, marked the day of the assassination of President John F. Kennedy. A blanket of maurning fell across the nation when the death af this great man occurred, and to pay tribute to him the flag in front of our school was lowered to half mast for an entire manth.

The anly two new officers elected this year were Gaylan Ramsey, President and Pat Bennett serving as Vice-President. Heather Stewart maintained her place as secretary and Joan Pluta, treasurer.

The Comp Chronicle became the name of our newspaper and the journalism staff issued its first volume in October.

Many "firsts" began happening at Comp once again. The cheerleaders sponsored a "hoot'n'rally," a National Honor and Pro Merito Society was established with Sherman Jones elected as President, Janet Spring, Vice-President; Bonnie Reed, secretary, and Steve Tillman, treasurer, and plans for a Seniar play, "Time Out Far Ginger" began.

Our first dance this year was a Sweetheart Ball held in February in caaperation with the Juniar Class. Miss Pamela Blackburn reigned as queen and was presented with one dozen American Beauty rases. Chosen as members of her court were Beverly Rollins, Betty Rothey, Joan Pluta, and Janet Fontaine.

Richard Hall, Scott Rand, Steve Tillman and Joseph Sasfy were the team of four scholars that made its debut on "As Schools Match Wits" and did extremely well. Alternates were Mary Van der Heyden and William (Kip) Crandall.

In sports a new team was added. This was the hackey caached by Mr. Welker. Comp's first hockey seasan ended successfully.

The basketball and soccer team both enjoyed good seasons also.

The varsity cheerleaders backing up the teams this year were: Judy O'Cannar and Joan Pluta, co-captains, Heather Stewart, Colleen Cooney, Donna Geraltowski, Bonnie Byrne, Karen Ducharme, and Sharon Jendrysik.

The Junior Varsity members included: Betsy Mitchell, Judy Jez, Kathy Jagadowski, Linda Tsahanis, Barbara Rhode, April Baker, Jackie Fartin, and Michelle Mercier.

As ane of our final duties as Seniors we chose our class pins.

Now, as we laak back, our Seniar Prom, class picnic, and our class banquet are all behind us. In just a few more days June 13 will be here. On that day Comp will set forth its first graduating class, the Class af 1964, aut into the world.

With the knowledge we have gained from our faur years as high schaal students, we face the world with courage and the hape ta continue.

We say gaad-bye naw to all the many friends we have made. Best af luck to you from the Class of 1964!

Yearbook Staff

When the Yearbook staff wos initially selected, we — the editars especially — really had no ideo why we were here, much less whot we were going to do. We had no experience ond since we were the first closs to graduote ot Comp, we could osk no one for help in producing samething thot resembled a yearbook.

Senior pictures, underclass pictures, write-ups, advertisements, art work, Wha's Wha, layauts, candids — literally hundreds of candids — had to be marked ond sent ta the publishers. The editors worked hard enaugh but always with some deadly apprehension for the Seniar Class is notorious for disliking any and all yearbooks. Many a Saturday was spent in the school library working on new ideas and attempting ta meet the much dreaded deadline.

The day of passing out the yearbaaks finolly came, marked by the usual howls. Anyway, we did out best and, at leost, we enjayed it.

Under the direction ot Mrs. Shumway, the staff includes:

Editorials

In the Comp Chronicle the editorials can be found on page two. In addition to editorials, page two contains colleges of the month, book reviews, and human interest stories. The pattern remains the same every month for the page make-up — two columns of editorials on the left, including the staff box; and three columns of news on the right.

A great deal of time is spent on deciding headlines, pictures, copy and on making a layout. Except for the difference in arrangement, each page gets put together in the same manner; each reporter is assigned definite articles each week which must be corrected, revised, and typed. Then they go to the printer who makes up galley proofs which are then pasted over an old copy of the Chronicle and then returned to the printer. The printer returns the finished papers to the school for distribution. As you can see, it's not so easy making a paper.

Sports Scope

No phase of newspaper work can ever be labeled as an easy job. But the most difficult task is preparing an interesting, up-to-date sports page. Since timeliness is involved, play by play reviews of a single game must be eliminated.

Varsity sports have received the most attention as we tried to give each team as good a write-up as possible.

Meet The Team, a new column, became a regular feature of the sports page. It provided a close interview with our varsity athletes. Besides the column, interviews, advance stories, varsity schedules and advertisements makeup the page.

After the copy is copy-read, the "bread and butter" of any newspaper, advertisements, must be pasted on the dummy.

The sports department extended thanks to the coaching staff for their cooperation in preparing sports articles.

Straight From The Horse's Mouth

Senior Bill Rand wanted to introduce himself to the new girl at a basketball game, but he later learned she was Tony Gawron with a Beatle wig!

Did ya ride in Lenny's (St. George) hot car yet? It seems he has all accessories except the brakes!

Seniors Berta Teehan and Carol Kowalik set a new first at Comp. They were fined for jay-walking in Springfield and received summons.

Remember the good old Sunday afternoons when Mimi Mercier could be seen directing traffic in front of City Hall with an ice-cream cone in her hand?

Well, "64" was a swinging year for the seniors. Besides dreaming up fantastic ideas for eluding classes and excuses for not doing homework, the class of "64" will be one not to be forgotten by the teachers and underclassmen of Comp, especially to be remembered by Mr. Coscore.

Chess Club

The Chess Club was a new organization at Comp this year. Led under the supervision of Mr. Checkwitz, they led a campaign to recruit girls. The players hope to achieve recognition as a major extracurricular activity within a few years when they join the chess league.

Art Club

A visit into the Art Room might lead you into thinking it was Greenwich Village. Besides being a haven for prospective Rembrant's, Renoirs, Picassos, the Impressionists, the cubist, or the surrealists, the club gives them a studio to express themselves freely. Under the leadership of Miss Borowiec, the Art Club contributes the art work for the senior play, Comp Frolics, minstrels, the yearbook and other events. Although small in number, the Art Club is large in achievement.

Officers are President, Pat Bennett; Vice-President, Rita Landis; Secretary, Phyllis Cieplik.

Spanish Club

The Spanish Club was started early this year by Dr. Carlos Cruz and Paul Peloquin. The club makes use of tapes of "My Fair Lady" and Spanish culture. A field trip was made to Hartford to see the Ballet Folkorico de Mexico at Bushnell Memorial Hall. To say a pro-Franco movement is under way is probably going too far, but the fact remains that there are quite a few students interested in Spain, Mexico and Spanish culture. Officers: President, Barb Ambrose; Vice President, Sue Raucher; Treasurer, Mabel Perdue; Secretary, Betty Rothey.

German Club

The German Club, headed by John Gogol, enriches their knowledge of German and Germany by viewing films of the German speaking countries of today. Baked goods sold like hot cakes and proved to be a success to raise money for field trips. Rumors say they are negotiating to buy East Germany; more reliable reports say that they are planning rollicking trips. The officers are: President, Bob Drake; Vice-President, Susan Wheeler; Treasurer Susan Beeler; and Secretary, Dana Brackett.

Debate Club

Under the watchful eye af Mr. Ahearn, the Debate Club finished faurth in the Cann. Valley League. Debates were held in individual schaals and in taurnaments.

Latin Club

Excelsiar cantinued ta cultivate knawledge in the culture af the Ramans by halding an ariginal "Saturnalia." Saturnalia was a jayaus Christmas festival with riataus merrymaking. Camp's Ramans praved ta be na exceptian and there was merrymaking indeed. Mrs. Ruth Fuller and Miss Katherine Balakier were the faculty advisars wha intraduced a "cauncil af representatives" system af gavernment which chase a chairman, treasurer, and secretary. Cauancil members are: Freshmen, Fred Sujat; saphamares, Kathy Fay and Jim Bardan; juniars, Jaanne LaVigne and Dave Himes; and seniars, Judy Minor and Kip Crandall. Chairman, Dave Himes; Treasurer, Jim Bardan; Secretary, Jaanne LaVigne.

Business Club

Amass all af Camp's future administratars inta ane graup and yau will have the Business Club. This year the Club spansored many activities including trips ta the Mass. Mutual Insurance Ca., Bay Path Jr. College and ather agencies. An interesting sidelight is that their meetings rarely last langer than twenty minutes (thanks ta their business-like efficiency). The advisar was Miss Grazanka.

Senior Homeroom Representatives

Audio-Visual Club

The A.V. is perhaps best known for its gallant rescues of teachers with broken projectors. Under the direction of Mr. Simon, the students carry on work backstage and in the A.V. room. These "busy beavers" are behind the scenes at every assembly program, and make it possible for all of the student body to enjoy films and movies as a part of their studies.

French Club

The French Club has expanded by the addition of interested first and second year French students to the regular membership of third and fourth year club members. "Achetez la voix Francais," which means "Buy the French Voice" refers to the new French newspaper put out by the industrious members. With the money earned from the sale of newspapers, the club, as suggested by its advisor Donald Robertaille, went to see "L' ALOUTTE," a French play. The students are also given the opportunity to become better acquainted with French customs and French cultures. Officers: President, Cathy Hoffman; Vice President, Theresa Barre; Secretary, Paula Dubin; Treasurer, Dianne Vincent.

Future Teachers

Under the leadership of Miss O'Brien, the future teachers look forward to fulfilling their goal. Numerous trips to area colleges and bake sales were part of their activities. Practice teaching in area elementary schools gave a preview of their goal of teaching. Officers were President Sandra Topulas; Vice-President Jackie Fortin; Secretary Monica Lukasik; Treasurer Linda Tsohonis; Historian Donna Geraltowski; Parliamentarian Mabel Perdue.

Future Nurses

Our life might be resting one day in the hands of these capable girls. These prospective nurses in white starch caps visit hospitals, nursing homes, and observe modern techniques on food preparation, infant care, surgical dressings and hospital administration. The club advisor is Miss Sudnik. Officers were Cheryl Buchanan, President; Mary Ann Jones, Vice President; Sandra Laduzenski, Secretary; Louella Gonzales, Treasurer.

Drama Club

Comprehensive High's dramatic society, the "Comp Plaiers," is a hard working but richly rewarded club headed by Mrs. Phyllis Goodrich. The students presented an adaptation of a Reginald Rose play called "Twelve Angry Jurors." The lively three act play portrays twelve different individuals, each with his own prejudices and opinions, demonstrating the way in which the American juror system works.

The Drama Club of '63-'64 can look back on a year of rewarded effort and will carry with it in the years to come memories of fun and experience.

Pep Club

A common sight at all our Colt games is the section of girls dressed in blue and waving pompons of blue ond gold. These cheerful girls make up Comp's Pep Squad, whose moin purpose is to cheer the Colts to victory. Working hard to boost school spirit, they weor their uniforms on color day ond support the Colt's by attending all the games. The leaders, cheerful, ready and willing to the end, were Miss St. Clair, Mrs. Pirog and Miss Topor.

BEAT 'EM BEAT 'EM.

National Honor Society

The Notional Honor Society of Comp is composed of those students who lead the school with their outstonding traits of scholarship, character, leadership and service. The purpose of this organization is to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote worthy leadership and to encourage the development chorocter in the students of our high school. Besides field trips, the students are eligible for library passes, which have proved to be valuable. The "BRAIN" of the group is Mr. Vail Otis.

Student Council

Advisory Council

This newly formed group of strong male voices have shown that they can sing just as well as the girls can. Comprised of thirty boys, they participate in the same functions as the "G CLEFS." In addition, they will perform for the Educational Fair.

F Clefs

G Clefs

This merry group of girls have participated in the District Concert as well as the All State Concert. They can be counted on in singing in our various school programs as the Easter and Christmas programs, plus Comp Frolics. Under the direction of Allan Sittard, they have sung before various local organizations.

Senior Play

Special Chorus

Dolphinettes

Band

The Comp High Band is open to all students interested in instrumental music. Each year the group performs at football games during halftime.

On March 15 the group marched for the St. Patrick's Day Parade held in Holyoke.

This year the Band competed in the Music Festival held in Hadley where ratings were given for the first time in the Festival. At Christmas, the group gave a joint concert with the chorus in our gym.

The majorettes perform with the band at all outside appearances. Mr. Allan Sittard, the band's director, has given all of his time and effort in order to make our band the best. He has succeeded in this endeavor. We're all proud of our 113 piece Comp Band.

Majorettes

The Majorettes of Comp were selected during the fall and have served for the entire term of 63-64. The try-outs were based on poise, fundamentals, and overall performances. The twirlers have provided half-time entertainment for the football games with high-strutting marches and intricate twirling patterns.

"We have thoroughly enjoyed preparing and performing routines for athletic functions and parades this year. It has been our privilege and honor to represent the student body of C.C.H.S. in such a fashion."

SPORTS

COMP COLTS

The Colts opened their first varsity football season in the fall of 1963. Compiling a 5 win, 2 loss record, the Colts had the last game called off because of snow.

The Colts got off to a roaring start in downing Adams and Drury, but were cooled a little by a loss to Springfield Tech and a heart-breaker to Enfield. But the Colts came pounding back with three straight wins over Trade, Cathedral and Ludlow in that order.

The highlight of the season was a great win over Cathedral 21-6. The Colts played their best brand of ball as the offense dominated the first half and defense the second half.

After the season had been completed, three men were chosen as All-Independent, due to their superlative playing during the season. These three were Bill Castel, Dennis Nevue and Richard Sitcer. Ray Barraws was elected Most Valuable Player of the season by the team.

BASKETBALL

The Colt Cagers finished their second Varsity season as they complied a 12 win 8 loss record. The Colts stunned Longmeadow, Enfield, and Classical in that order during the season and in the biggest game of the year, beat Commerce in a comeback victory 75-72.

The Colts made a strong bid for a berth in the tournaments this year, but a loss to the strong Commerce team in the second meeting deprived them of a place in the tournament.
